

The Illinois Community College Board is hosting a series of Dual Credit Drive-In Workshops to help colleges, high schools and other stakeholders better understand state dual credit policies.

2009 Workshop Series Dates

September 16, Lincoln Land Community College

October 22, John A. Logan College

October 27, Elgin Community College

These workshops will focus on –

- Ways to ensure dual credit quality
- Current ICCB Administrative Rules regarding dual credit
- The Dual Credit Quality Act
- How to engage local partners in dual credit

The intended audience for the Dual Credit Drive-In Workshop Series is community college chief academic officers, college and high school dual credit coordinators, education-for employment directors and others interested in learning more about the administration of dual credit in Illinois.

The workshops are free, but registration is required. To register, go to <http://iccbdsrv.iccb.org/dualcredittraining/registration.cfm>.

For more information, please contact Rob Kerr, ICCB Director of Career and Technical Education, at rob.kerr@illinois.gov.