MEET TODAY'S 4-STAR TALENT, TOMORROW'S LEADERS

Across every generation, men and women step up, take their oath, don a uniform and put their lives at risk to serve our nation. Most wear their uniform for just a time. With the permanent badge of "veteran," they return to civilian life to continue to serve. The 9/11 generation, for one, is returning or already home in force, more ADEPT in training, cultural diversity and leadership than those before it.

They now yearn to serve the private and public sectors by starting their own businesses or carving careers rich in experience and responsibility. At the same time, EMPLOYERS crave THE SKILLS, TALENT and POTENTIAL that the modern military generates and that CREATE TOMORROW'S LEADERS.

IT'S TIME TO grasp the opportunity before us to mesh this four-star talent with employers who need what they possess and the Community partners that support this process. It's time to recognize that today's vet is our best bet.
